

PEACE of CHRIST PARISH

ST. AMBROSE • ST. JAMES • ST. JOHN THE EVANGELIST

July 4, 2010

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

Happy Independence Day to you all! May we be mindful of and prayerfully grateful for our freedoms as we celebrate this Fourth of July. Our holiday Mass in the Father Zimmer Peace Garden will be tomorrow, Monday, at 9:00 A.M. As I type this, work is being done on installing a sidewalk that should be much more handicapped-accessible from the parking lot to the interior of the garden itself. It is everyone's donations via our regular Sunday envelopes, and to the first Sunday of the month Building and Maintenance collection, and toward the payment of our pledges to the Peace of Christ Campaign that make such improvements and upkeep possible. Thanks so much!

As you read this, I am on vacation in Newfoundland. Last year, I had driven to Saskatchewan to see the prairies. This year, I thought I'd drive to the Maritimes to see another part of our neighbor to the north that I had not yet seen. Both of these trips mean many hours in the car, but for me that is the vacation: not the getting there, but the travel along the highway and seeing all that lies between here and the furthest destination. Newfoundland is strangely 1½ hours ahead of Rochester, so this will be a challenge to stay on time for ferry boats and the like as I travel about. I'll get back next week during Vacation Bible Camp, so catch a few restful moments yourselves as well.

This is the first Sunday of my 2nd 6-year term as pastor of Peace of Christ. It is so hard to believe such time has already passed. You have supported me so much by your presence and your prayers through these years of many challenges and many milestones, and I look forward to these next six years as well.

In addition, we have a good house here in which to live. Fathers Werth and Carpenter are fascinating housemates, and their presence is augmented by Fr. Chuck Latus (pastor of St. Rita's) and Fr. Stan Kacprzak (pastor of St. Paul's) and (on his first weekend with us in the house) Fr. Samuel Batsa (parochial vicar of St. Rita's—Fr. Hoan Dinh just moved from that position to parochial vicar of Our Lady of Peace Parish in Geneva). Some have wondered from time to time what a typical day for us might be like. Well, I am usually the first one up. I try to get out for a 3-mile run a few days each week and enjoy seeing the paper-deliverers, the dog-walkers, and various squirrels, rabbits, and even occasional deer along the way. Back at the rectory, I'll cool down while having breakfast and reading the paper, and then adjourn to our prayer room for an hour before the Blessed Sacrament. That usually is filled with praying the Liturgy of the Hours, saying the rosary, doing some spiritual reading, some journaling, and some quiet contemplation as I hear the rest of the house come to life. After making ready for the day, I then head for whatever Mass I am assigned, do some deskwork at the office, meet with appointments, go out on calls, and sometimes attend various daytime meetings in the parish or around the diocese—a few committees recently took me quarterly to New York and semi-annually to Baltimore, but those will be all done by early September. Back at the house, a few days a week we have Evening Prayer and dinner together before heading out to evening meetings. At 10 o'clock, we watch the News and then it's lights out for another day! Whatever your days are like, peace to you!

—Father Schrader

CHILDREN, FAMILY, SACRAMENTAL PREPARATION FAITH FORMATION OPPORTUNITIES

BIBLE CAMP SUPPLIES: We have had a tremendous response for donations to our Bible Camp. On behalf of all of our children thank you for everything that you have given us. Our children are certainly the beneficiaries of the generosity of all of you.

Bible Camp begins on Monday July 12, 9:00 am in Dailey Hall in St. John Neumann School. Please pray for our children, adult leaders and youth leaders that this may be a great experience of Christian Community.

CONTINUING ON THE JOURNEY... ADULT FAITH FORMATION OPPORTUNITIES.

SPIRITUAL EXERCISES OF ST. IGNATIUS – 19TH ANNOTATION: Are you looking for a deeper experience of God? The 19th Annotation might be something for you to think about. St. Ignatius developed a prayerful process to help people experience greater freedom through their relationship with Jesus. This is a weekly process offered through Mercy Prayer Center. If you would like more information please call Mercy Prayer Center – 473-6893 or talk to Pat Lawlor.

A JOURNEY WITH ARCHBISHOP OSCAR ROMERO:

It has been 30 years since Oscar Romero was martyred in El Salvador. In honor of his memory, the Adult Faith Formation Committee has invited Damien Zynda, an expert on Oscar Romero's life and death, to give two presentations on his life and its challenges for us today. Mark your calendars and join us on Thursday, November 4 and 18, 7:00 – 8:30 pm. Watch this space for more information.

MINISTRY OF MOTHERS SHARING

(MOMS): Throughout history, countless women have shared the joy and miracle of bringing new life into the world.

Those who have taken the time to reflect on their experiences and share their stories have realized more fully the sacredness of their call to motherhood and the challenge of personal spiritual growth. MOMS is an opportunity for mothers to come together to discover and share the holy gift of being a mother. Starting in September, we will offer the MOMS process. We will meet on 8 consecutive Thursday evenings beginning September 30 and ending November 18 (babysitting will be provided). In order to have a meaningful experience, we will only be able to take 15 women. Sign-up materials will be available soon. Take a look at your calendar and see if this is the year to explore the spirituality of motherhood. For more information please call (288-1620) or e-mail (plawlor@dor.org) Pat

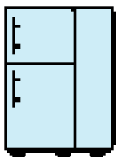

SHAWL MINISTRY:

“Shawls have been made for centuries; they are universal and embracing; they comfort and enfold; wrap and warm; mother and hug; shelter and beautify. Those who knit and receive shawls are loved and blessed.” (Victoria Cole-Gato and Janet Bristow)

A group of women from our parish meets twice a month to knit and crochet prayer shawls. These shawls are given to anyone who needs a reminder of how much they are loved and cared for.

Do you know someone who is ill, recovering from a loss or celebrating a significant anniversary? We have prayer shawls that you can give them. Call (288-1622) or e-mail (plawlor@dor.org) Pat Lawlor to pick up a shawl.

Our next Shawl Ministry meeting is this Tuesday, July 13, 7:00 pm in the Conference Room at St. Ambrose. ALL ARE WELCOME. Come and join us or if you need more information, call Pat.
