Dear Parishioners and Friends,

We are happy to welcome among us today Redemptorist Father Mike Sergi, CSsR from Notre Dame Retreat House. A number of you attend the annual retreat week designated for Peace of Christ Parish each year at the retreat facility in Canandaigua. As you know, the facility itself is beautiful, and the view from it overlooking Canandaigua Lake is awesome—like looking out over the Sea of Galilee. This year, our Men's Retreat is scheduled for October 15-17 and our Women's Retreat is scheduled for October 22-24. Father Mike I'm sure will tell us more about the theme for this year, but whether you're a regular retreatant or you've never gone before, why not mark down those dates for an appointment with the Lord. Your time will not be better spent for that Friday evening through midday Sunday and will surely help to prep you for whatever lies in the months ahead.

Last week, I shared the dollars and cents of how we've used the funds from our Peace of Christ Capital Campaign and today we have an article on page 4 describing what we've done in more descriptive detail. Thanks again both for your pledges made and for your payment on them. By the way, pledges may continue to be made at any time, and there is still room left on our Trees of Life at each site for major gifts commemorated by a leaf or a rock. I also explained last week the dollars and cents about other common repairs around our parish as funded by the First Sunday of the Month 2nd Collection such as we are taking up this weekend for September. Thank you so much for your regular generosity to this monthly plea for such funds.

Monday is Labor Day. Our annual Mass in the Father Edward Zimmer Peace Garden at St. John the Evangelist is at 9:00 A.M. Please, remember to bring your lawn chair. Refreshments follow. Rain place is in the church.

Tuesday, Father Bob Werth begins his two-year term as the representative of the priests of Northeast Monroe County on the Diocesan Presbyteral Council which meets in Shortsville. God's blessings on this group which gathers monthly to advise Bishop Clark.

Wednesday, St. John Neumann School once again opens its doors to our students. Pray for them, their teachers, their parents, the school's administrators, and all who support Catholic education.

Thursday is Rosh Hashanah. It is the Jewish New Year 5771. May we pray for our Jewish neighbors who celebrate this new beginning.

Friday, September 10th, is the date I had written on my calendar for Dane Noble-Rosema's return to work here at Peace of Christ Parish following his trip home to see his family and renew his visa. As you know from last week, things are still up in the air and continue to be at this writing. But please know that your response was most overwhelming with your 1,048 signatures placed upon the petition for this being granted his visa. These were delivered to Louise Slaughter's office on Monday. Pray that she be successful in obtaining it for him.

Saturday is the 9th anniversary of the events of 9/11 at the World Trade Center, the Pentagon, and in Shanksville, Pennsylvania. Much tension exists today between good Islamic congregants and others because of association by way of their religion alone. Pray for healing and respect for all people of good faith.

Next Sunday is the 50th anniversary of Hurricane Donna lashing 130 m.p.h. winds against Rhode Island. May God protect all folks along these storms' tracks in this busy hurricane season!

—Father Schrader

Capital Campaign Update

The Peace of Christ (POC) Parish Joint Facilities Committee is pleased to inform everyone that we have made significant progress on the POC Capital Campaign projects over the past 16 months. Much of the work we have undertaken is not grand, glorious or something we can even point to in some cases--but some we can--and some of those things we can't point to we are most proud of.

Behind the scenes, Ron Bess from St. Ambrose has been instrumental in arranging and facilitating the major boiler renovation work at the convents of St. Ambrose and St. James. The majority of work was at the St. Ambrose site and is very much behind the scenes. The boilers in the school as well as the convent breathe new life again with their major overhauls. We expect a long life from these repairs and improved efficiencies. The Taillie Company did most of our renovations for the boilers

DDS Companies and Ruston Paving provided the repaving efforts on all three campuses. Parking lots, paving, sealing and drainage updates are certainly more visible to all but not a very exciting way of spending money on facility improvements. However, parking lots and paving maintenance are extremely costly to all building owners, and it is critical to maintain safe and secure areas for our parishioners to access the various parish sites throughout the seasons.

Five of our fourteen buildings have had their roofs replaced, repaired, and maintained during our campaign. The roof at Dailey Hall and the St John Neumann School Annex is a new EPDM membrane with a new blanket of polyisocyanurate insulation. The roof of the rectory housing our reverends has been redone on the St John the Evangelist site and that over the sisters' heads at the St. James Convent site. The rectory re-roof had a few issues which got us involved in ways we did not expect. We'll save that story for another time. The most challenging roof work has been at the St. Ambrose site with the roofs over the church. This structure has flat roofs, sloped roofs, high roofs and low roofs, a little bit of everything. We chose to invest a little bit more money into the large sloped roofs here. We installed a special system called a "Cool-Vent" roof that adds a layer of r-20 insulation and then a vented space with a standard plywood and thirty year asphalt shingle roof. This new system will outperform the old system. The improved thermal performance is already yielding lower energy costs and a more comfortable sanctuary. We will be monitoring the utility costs across the campuses to understand better the cost savings and investment yields in the coming months and years.

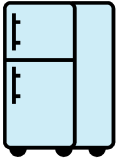

Of course our work is not done. There are still a dozen or so smaller projects to complete along with some new repair items. We still have to close out a few of the roof contracts and (as part of that) check on completion of a few "punch list" items.

While many of the improvements are readily seen such as the parking lots, the behind the scenes work of the boilers and the roofing systems is not quite as visible. It is our hope that some of these unseen changes will have the biggest impact for the parish. The impact will be in terms of lower long-term operating costs. Lowering our operating costs is a fundamental way of having a more sustainable parish. On behalf of the facilities committee we are proud of our progress and look forward to continuing on our path. We hope this update helps in keeping you informed on how your pledges and gifts have been most helpful in the life of our parish.

Sincerely,

The Peace of Christ Facilities Committee

Myers, Architect; members Ron Bess, Ray Brecker, Brett Costello, Tom Coughlin, Gloria Malaggesi, George Perrotta, Dan Walsh, Paul Way; and staff Jeff Carter, St. Ambrose Maintenance; John Griffith, St. James Maintenance; Chung Ma, St. John the Evangelist Maintenance; Carmen J. MOMS (Ministry of Mothers Sharing) gathers mothers together to form a network of mutual, spiritual support. It is for mothers with wisdom to share; mothers who are searching for answers and meaning in their vocation of motherhood; mothers who find motherhood fulfilling, challenging, rewarding and/or frustrating. Single mothers, married mothers, new mothers, and experienced mothers all have found a safe place to share the common bond of motherhood.

MOMS is an 8 week peer ministry in which you explore your own spirituality and share with other mothers the stresses, concerns and positive experiences that have influenced, or are influencing, your own spiritual growth. You will use a journal to record your thoughts and reflections on selected topics. The weekly sessions are based on your journaling and include facilitated discussions among all participants. Each group typically includes 12—15 participants. Come, experience the support of other women as you discover the depth of your own spirituality.

You must be able to commit to attending all 8 sessions.
